MURDERER IS STILL AT LARGE

Nevada City Grass Valley NUGGET

Vol. 21—No. 102 NEVADA CITY-GRASS VALLEY, CALIFORNIA FRIDAY, NOV. 21, 1947

DETAILS OF ESCAPE SHROUDED IN MYSTERY: CLUES USELESS

NEVADA CITY: Since Joseph L. Hardy, Jr., confessed murderer of James McLain, elevator man in a veterans administration building in the bay area, disappeared mysteriously from the county jail sometime Monday, many tips have been received by the sheriff's office, but so far none have developed into a lead.

His wife, Lois Hunt Hardy, who shares with him in the murder confession, professed amazement when she learned her husband had departed. Apparently she had no inkling he was even thinking of escape. On November 12th he had sent two postals to the local broadcasting station asking that two songs, "I'll Be Seeing You," and "We'll Be Together Again," be rendered last Tuesday and Wednesday nights. They were dedicated to "Lois from Joey." The sheriff has permitted them to be played but the radio set was first removed from Lois' cell.

Sheriff Hoskins yesterday said he does not believe that Hardy is anywhere in this vicinity now. He does not believe the escaped murderer went east, because of the cold. He thinks he has gone south, that is, toward Southern California. Hardy is very lightly dressed. He wears a checkered blue shirt, a pair of brown army pants, brown shoes, a field jacket, a gray, or possibly a blue felt hat. Before he left he had accumulated a dozen chocolate bars and is known to have had several dollars in currency, believed to have been contributed by his eight cell mates. He walks with a slight limp and has a bad sore on one leg.

Peace officers throughout the West have a good description of Hardy. The deputies believe he will do most of his traveling by night. His companions confined with him in the jail tank here, have been uncommunicative of any information of value. Sheriff Hoskins took the eight of them, in pairs, and placed them in four separate cells, withdrawn all their privileges and is now waiting for one or more of them to talk.

District Attorney Vernon Stoll has had the trial of the Hardy's postponed from November 24th to December 1st.

NEW PUBLICATION IN 6,000 LOCAL HOMES!

NEVADA CITY: The NUGGET SHOPPER, a weekly free-distribution shopping news has been established by Harley M. Leete, Jr. and Howard J. Smiley to keep Nevada County's retail trade in local shops.

The newly-established publication will blanket the entire county with the exception of the Truckee district.

It's circulation of 6,000 will include every house in Nevada City and Grass Valley, and virtually all rural and star route boxholders served directly by the Nevada City and Grass Valley post offices.

Because the residents of Downieville, Sierra City and Alleghany do much of their shopping here, they, too, receive the shopper along with citizens of North San Juan, Camptonville, Smartville, Rough and Ready, Cedar Ridge, Union Hill, LeBarr Meadows, Indian Flat, Willow Valley, Gold Flat and all other communities, however small, in the area.

With its COMPLETE COVERAGE, the Nugget Shopper serves as a magnet for retail buying, drawing business formerly lured elsewhere, into Grass Valley and Nevada City stores.

Out-of-town newspapers, with their powerful circulation in this area, have exerted, with modern advertising displays, an unfailing drag upon retail buying from this county.

Now the NUGGET SHOPPER, only media to give COMPLETE coverage of the trading area, is presenting the wares of local merchants with the same appeal which large retail institutions are given in metropolitan newspapers.

IT WILL BE ON YOUR DOORSTEP OR IN YOUR MAILBOX EVERY FRIDAY.

UNIFICATION OF SCHOOLS DEFEATED

NEVADA CITY: Tuesday's election in school unification resulted in the defeat of the measure by 1377 to 689. The only district of the county's 19, in which the proposal carried was the Lime Kiln area. There it only won by 4 votes—22 to 18.

All other rural districts rejected the proposition flatly. It was defeated 2 to 1 in Grass Valley and 3 to 2 in Nevada City.

The itemized tally was as follows:

	Yes	No
Kentucky Flat	4	15
Oakland	50	92
Rough and Ready	27	36
Union Hill	27	68
Wolf	5	17
Clear Creek	0	26

Wife Lonesome

Lois Hunt Hardy, 22, accused in the "kiss of death" murder of J. W. McLain, 48, was melancholy and disconsolate in her solitary cell in the Nevada County Jail today while the authorities pressed the hunt for her confessed and escaped crime partner, Joseph L. Hardy, Jr., 24.

Sheriff Richard Hoskins said Lois, who "leans to the blue side anyway," is more lonely than ever since Hardy escaped and he ordered her confined to her cell alone with radio, confession magazines and writing materials removed.

The sheriff and a posse remained up most of the night in the Mooney Flat and Smartville areas after receiving a tip Hardy was seen there. Late yesterday a posse went on a fruitless chase to North San Juan, 15 miles to the north on the Downieville Highway, on a similiar tip.

Other tips were received by telephone and in prson from various points. In the meantime Sheriff Richard W. Hoskins feels the best and most authentic tip should come from one of the eight men who occupied the tank witht Hardy from which the escape was made.

Fresno Report

Reports that Joseph L. Hardy, accused murderer who escaped from the Nevada county jail, was in Fresno Tuesday night, are under investigation by the police.

Jack Sollis, hotel manager, and two waitresses in a nearby grill, Louise Puckett and Helen Bradway identified a picture of Hardy published in last night's Fresno Bee as that of the man they saw Tuesday night.

Sollis said Hardy and a companion attempted to rent a room from him Tuesday night. Sollis and the man he identified as Hardy argued over the price of the room and Sollis hit him, inflicting a cut on the right jaw.

The waitress told the police Hardy was in the restaurant at 9:30 p. m. and again at 11 p. m. the same night.

The officers said a check of rooming houses and hotels failed to reveal any further information concerning the man they sought.

Tasty Dishes That Are Good For Child and Adult Alike

By BETSY NEWMAN

YOUNG children should not be fed highly seasoned or over rich foods. They do like well-seasoned dishes, however, and their food should always be attractively served, never sloppy. Mealtime impressions in the early years last through life.

While children cannot always eat the foods prepared for grown-ups, the reverse is true. Grown-ups can always partake of a child's meals after said child is past babyhood. In fact, a child's diet is healthful for the adult. Take, for instance, the following menu, and you will see what I mean.

Today's Menu

Breakfast

Orange or Tomato Juice
Whole grain cereal
Buttered Toast Crisp bacon Jam
Milk or Cocoa
with Coffee for Adults, if preferred

Luncheon

Poached Egg on Toast
or Boiled Rice
Buttered Greens
Carrot Sticks Sliced Bananas
Cookie Milk

Dinner

Pan Fried Liver
or Hamburger Patties
Plain Boiled New Potatoes
Buttered Young Carrots
Cabbage Slaw
Caramel Pudding Milk Coffee

Fried Liver

Calf's liver, beef liver, lamb liver and pig's liver are all good. Calf's liver is considered the choicest and some people will take no other, but beef and lamb liver are often tender and have excellent flavor.

In buying liver, select meat with very little odor and of a bright red color. Wipe liver with a damp cloth, and if it seems tough, parboil for 5 minutes before cooking. One pound will serve 4. Dredge liver slices with flour, sprinkle with salt and pepper, and fry in bacon fat, turning frequently until brown on both sides and tender throughout. Cook ½ inch slices about 5 minutes. Overcooking toughens liver.

Poached Eggs

There are two schools of thought (at least) on poaching eggs. One authority says to take three pints of water—6 cups—add 1 tbsp. vinegar and ½ tbsp. salt and stir vigorously around and around the edge of saucepan, using wooden spoon held in nearly upright position while water is boiling vigorously. As soon as a well is formed in middle of water, slip in an egg and lower heat until white is set. Take out with a skimmer and keep hot until the desired number of eggs are prepared.

The other advocates a shallow pan of frying pan. Heat salted water to the boiling point; break an egg into a saucer, and slip it gently into the water. Repeat until desired number of eggs are in. Remove the pan from the fire, cover and keep hot until the eggs are set to the desired degree. If yolks are not entirely covered, spoon water carefully over them until they are coated white. Remove with a skimmer or perforated ladle.

Caramel Pudding

1 c. brown sugar ¼ c. flour
2 c. milk 2 eggs

Mix sugar and 1½ c. milk and scald in a double boiler until sugar is dissolved. Mix flour with beaten egg yolks and the rest of the milk and blend smoothly. Add to hot milk mixture, stirring until it thickens. Remove from fire and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Chill and serve with whipped cream.

O'CONNOR TO DEFINE DONNER BOUNDARIES

NEVADA CITY: The board of supervisors have turned to the county surveyer, Joseph F. O'Connor to define the boundaries of the proposed Donner Summit Utility District.

O'Connor was ordered to make a survey of the proposed district so that its boundaries can be described when an election is called. Boards of Supervisors of both Nevada and Placer Counties were ordered to call an election by Judge B. F. Van Dyke of Sacramento, who heard mandamus proceedings against the two boards brought by petitioners.

Metropolitan Papers Please Copy!

Folks here were burned up over an article on Our Town I reprinted from a city paper. Made us sound like a bunch of "hicks" who whittled sticks and wore chin whiskers. (Last person I saw with chin whiskers was passing through on his way east.)

So I ran an editorial on how we spoke of city "slickers"—as overdressed wiseacres, only interested in making money, and spending it in night clubs.

Fact is, if we got to know each other we'd probably find we're not much different, underneath. City folks work hard; like to come home at night to their families; and relax with a moderate glass of beer, like we do.

From where I sit, it doesn't matter if you live in an apartment house or on a farm—work in an office or a cornfield—the American tradition of quiet home life, temperate habits, and neighborliness is common to all of us.

MARCH OF TIME NO. 3

Representing a fifth of a century of progress in international air service, and over 7,000,000 passengers carried overseas, Pan American World Airways this year celebrated its 20th Anniversary. Captain Basil Rowe, above, one of the 129 of the airline's pilots who have flown over 1,000,000 miles, has logged over 3,500,000 miles and the equivalent of almost three consecutive years in the air since his introduction to flying in 1917.

The 1927 crossing of the 90 miles of open water between Key West, Florida, and Havana, Cuba, in a wooden-winged, three motored Fokker (shown right above) flying at 85 M.P.H. and carrying only 8 passengers is a far cry from today's globe-circling in luxurious Constellation, D-C 4 and Boeing Stratocruiser type Clippers. This route was only the first for Captain Rowe and other Pan American pilots as they stretched their pioneer services to South America, China, the Central Pacific, the North Atlantic and Africa.

Today's establishment of round-the-world service is the line's latest first. Soon it is to be joined by the first domestic route to fly high-speed, long-haul, non-stop express flights within the U.S., linking their coastal terminals if a program now pending before the Civil Aeronautics Board is approved.

Pretty Petticoats

New white crepe petticoat.

By VERA WINSTON

WITH THE introduction of the wired bra, the petticoat or half-slip has really come into its own. A favorite with many women during warm weather, pretty petticoats now are in the year-round lingerie picture, with the shops featuring full length models for evening wear, as well as the usual street-length designs. The white crepe model, illustrated, has a dainty pale blue scalloped hem and blue and yellow satin appliqued flower.

COOKING THANKSGIVING TURKEY

Thanksgiving turkey can be moist, tender and full of flavor, or dry and disappointing, depending on how it is cooked. Here is a quick refresher course that may help you have a plump, tender, golden brown turkey.

Select a bird with a clean, waxy skin, few pinfeathers and no bruises. Have your butcher remove the leg tendons with the feet. Tendons become hard and dry during roasting and make the drumstick difficult to slice.

Clean the turkey thoroughly by washing inside and out with warm soda water and a brush. To remove stubborn pinfeathers, run cold water on the spot and scrape with the back of a knife in the direction of the growth, or use tweezers. Give the inside a final check, rinse well and drain.

Rub the inside of the bird with salt. Fill the neck cavity with stuffing and fasten the skin to the back with a metal skewer. Don't pack the dressing—it will be soggy and the bird may burst when the dressing expands during the roasting. After stuffing the body, lace the opening with skewers and a heavy cord. (When stuffing a turkey ahead of time, chill the dressing thoroughly.) Tie the legs together and fasten them to the tail. Grease the whole turkey with melted, unsalted fat.

Serving moist turkey meat is the aim of every cook. The secret is simple—roast the turkey in a low-sided, open pan at constant low heat. A covered pan surrounds the bird with steam which tends to draw out the natural juices.

A V-shaped rack, which holds the turkey breast-side down while roasting, makes the white meat more moist. If you use a flat rack, lay the bird on its side and turn to the other side, half way through the cooking period. Should the skin appear dry before the turkey is done, moisten a cloth with melted fat and lay over it.

To test for doneness, press the fleshy part of the leg with your fingers, protected by a cloth or paper. The meat should feel soft. Don't spear the turkey with a fork because you lose flavorful juices.

If you use a thermometer, your turkey will be done when a thermometer placed in the center of the inside thigh muscle registers 190° F., or when one placed in the center of the dressing registers 180° F.

Do you have trouble making gravy that is smooth and rich? If so, try measuring the fat, flour and liquid according to the following recipe:

TURKEY GRAVY

3 tablespoons drippings
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups liquid
Salt and pepper

Pour drippings from the r... into a bowl. Skim off as much ... as ... sible and put three tablespoons in a sauce pan. Add the flour and blend thoroughly. Measure meat juice and add giblet stock, milk or water to make 2 cups. Set fat and flour over low heat, stirring constantly. Cook until frothy. Add cold liquid all at once. Stir constantly until thickened. Boil briskly about 5 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve boiling hot. Makes 2 cups. Increase the recipe according to the number to be served.

TURKEY ROASTING CHART.

Wt.*	Oven Temp.	Approx. Cooking Time per Lb.	Approx. Cooking Time
8 to 10 lbs.	325° F.	20 to 25	3 to 3½ hr
10 to 14 lbs.	325° F.	18 to 20	3½ to 4 hr
14 to 18 lbs.	300° F.	15 to 18	4 to 4½ hr

Household Hint

If you have a piece of meat that you suspect isn't going to be tender, marinate it in plain vinegar with a dash of garlic vinegar added. Garlic vinegar is made by mashing 6 garlic cloves and putting them into a pint of vinegar. Let it stand about 10 days. Use only a drop or two in a salad or other foods.

Nevada County Long Ago -

20 Years Ago

Due to the efficient management of the Narrow Gauge Railroad under the receivership of George Calanan and President J. Earl Taylor a petition was filed in superior court by the railroad to have the receivership terminated and the road placed under the direction of the company once more. The petition was signed by the president and receiver and by J. C. Tyrell, secretary, and F. F. Cassidy, W. V. Tamblyn, and A. H. Mooser, directors. An inspection trip of the roadbed and car shops was made on special train by officials of the company and Mayor A. M. Holmes of Nevada City, W. B. Cellio, Raglan Tuttle, John W. Darke, S. Lee Leiter, W. W. Waggoner, Fred C. Worth, and W. H. Griffith. From Grass Valley the party included Mayor Tom Evely, Jack Curnow, E. G. Kinyon, D. McFalane, Frank Eldridge, J. T. Blight, Jack B. Stennett, C. H. Barker, Jack Wolff, James Geach, Bud Deward and C. E. Clinch. George Calanan in rare good humor and with his becoming wit conducted the tour between Nevada City and Colfax. Refreshments were served enroute.

50 Years Ago

At a meeting of the City Board of Education over which Mr. C. E. Mulloy presided, Wm. G. Richards protested against the method of Principal O'Neill of disciplining certain pupils of the eighth grade by a week suspension from school. Mr. O'Neil in answer stated that the children for the most part, especially the girls, were too big and too old to be whipped. The Board upheld Mr. ONeill's method of discipline.

A dedication entertainment and ball was given upon the opening of the new Washington School in Nevada City. Appearing on the program were Mrs. A. W. Mason in a solo, Ralph Gaylord in a whistling solo, Miss Mable Hughes in a vocal solo and Henry Sweeny, J. R. Davis, Harry Shockley and John Werry in a male quartet. Proceeds of the evening went toward the payment of the new building which cost $15,000 and was considered one of the best public buildings for its size in the state.

In a 200 yard target shoot of Company C of the Nevada City Light Guard Lt. Bowerman and Private Bost led with a score of twenty out of a possible twenty five. Private W. P. Sigourney was second with nineteen while Sergeant McLead and Privates Kitts and Kilroy followed with eighteen.

The Nevada City Mine was sold at Sheriff's sale to satisfy a judgment for $12,000 obtained by George C. Gaylord on his own and assigned claims due from Gold Hill Mining Company. The plaintiff bid the property in for the amount of the judgment and costs. Thos. S. Ford, attorney for the Eastern holders of the bonds issued by the company, protested against the sale.

A fire and burglar proof safe of Eastern manufacture was received at the Bank of Nevada County in Nevada City. It weighed 8,500 pounds and cost $1900 in San Francisco.

In consequence of the enterprise of the North Bloomfield Gravel Mining Company at Malkoff, the town of North Bloomfield was growing rapidly. New buildings were going up, bids were being asked for the erection of a school building and a great impetus was given to trade.

The residence on Piety Hill in Nevada City of the Rev. J. A. Wirth, former pastor of the Baptist Church, was advertised for sale.

NEW PUBLICATION IN 6,000 LOCAL HOMES!

The NUGGET SHOPPER has been established by Harley M. Leete, Jr. and Howard J. Smiley to keep Nevada County's retail trade in local shops.

The newly-established shopping news will blanket the entire county with the exception of the Truckee district.

It's circulation of 6,000 will include every house in Nevada City and Grass Valley, and virtually all rural and star route boxholders served directly by the Nevada City and Grass Valley post offices.

Because the residents of Downieville, Sierra City and Alleghany do much of their shopping here, they, too, receive the shopper along with citizens of North San Juan, Camptonville, Smartville, Rough and Ready, Cedar Ridge, Union Hill, LeBarr Meadows, Indian Flat, Willow Valley, Gold Flat and all other communities, however small, in the area.

With its COMPLETE COVERAGE, the Nugget Shopper serves as a magnet for retail buying, drawing business formerly lured elsewhere, into Grass Valley and Nevada City stores.

Out-of-town newspapers, with their powerful circulation in this area, have exerted, with modern advertising displays, an unfailing drag upon retail buying from this county.

Now the NUGGET SHOPPER, only media to give COMPLETE coverage of the trading area, is presenting the wares of local merchants with the same appeal which large retail institutions are given in metropolitan newspapers.

IT WILL BE ON YOUR DOORSTEP OR IN YOUR MAILBOX EVERY FRIDAY.

Pictured above with some of the fruits of their labor are: William W. Esterly, Ed Steele, Rev. Frank H. Buck, William French, and Charles Hilpert. All were principal workers in the Twin Cities' contributions to the Friendship train. The picture was taken in the Episcopal Parish Hall at 245 South Church street, Grass Valley, where the food was stored prior to being packed and transported to Sacramento.—Peart Photo.

Well, look at the heading for this column! If your writer wasn't so dumb, he would have dreamed it up long ago. There's been a need for it ever since Donald Robert Paine, former Main At Mill writer, discontinued his column and became the county's most astute politician.

If you've got half an hour or so on your hands, and not a thing to do, we'll tell you how we arrived at this remarkable title. Seems our printshop has been deftly converted into a madhouse for the past week, putting out 6,000 copies of the NUGGET SHOPPER. Your reporter, though a lazy fellow, opposed to work in any form, has been tricked into laboring every night, resulting in stupefaction of his brain.

So this evening (Thursday), he was drowsing at a desk, while five busy and bright-eyed printers labored at his various publishing enterprises. In order to conceal the horrible example he set by slumbering in a chair, your editor defaced some lovely white paper with a big ugly black pencil.

Who should come along, but Cyrus Martin Rollins, secretary-treasurer of the Nevada County Printer's Devils Association. Rollins, an expert coffee maker, whipped out his bottle of powdered caffein and soon had

THE - Diary of a 49'er

FROM THE BOOK EDITED BY C. L. CANFIELD

CHAPTER ONE

MAY 19, 1850—The pork I bought in town last night is the stinkenest salt junk ever brought around the Horn. It is a hardship that we can't better hog meat as it's more than half of our living. We fry it for breakfast and supper, boil it with our beans and sop our bread in the grease. Lord knows we pay enough for it. When I first settled on the creek (Rock Creek, Nevada County) it was a dollar a pound and the storekeeper talks about it being cheap now at sixty cents. I believe that if it were not for the potatoes that are fairly plenty and the fact that the woods are full of game, we would all die of scurvy.

There is a hunter who lives over on Round Mountain who makes a living killing deer and peddling the meat among the miners. He charges fifty cents a pound for venison steaks and he told me he makes more money than the average miner. I paid seventy-five cents apiece in town yesterday for two apples and did not begrudge the money. I was told that they were grown in Oregon, which seemed strange as I did not know that country had been settled long enough to raise fruit.

Will sell no more dust to M——. He allowed only $18.50 for his at the store but it always weighs short. They are all in a ring to rob us poor miners. Sent an eleven dollar specimen home to Dad.

Sack of flour	$14.00	5 lbs. dried apples	$1.50

5 lbs. sugar	$2.50	Shovel
Codfish	$2.00	Pick
20 lbs. potatoes	$6.00	Total	$67.

I was charged four dollars for delivering the lot the creek Sunday morning. Forgot to get some po der and shot. Paid four bits apiece for two New Yo Heralds.

FREE FURS - ON HOOF

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 13. — Want a new fur coat practically for free?

All you need to get one "on the hoof" is a trapper's license, obtainable at Division of Fish and Game offices, a dozen or so traps, a boat of some sort, a working knowledge of beaver habits, and leisure to pursue the wily animals over approximately 1200 miles of Delta water ways.

The California Division of Fish and Game has authorized an open season for taking Golden Beaver, a situation which has not prevailed since 1910. November 15 marks the opening day of the beaver trapping season, which will continue until February 25.

The increase in beaver population, and protests from ranchers, irrigation district represetatives, and residents fearing inundation as a result of damage to levees caused by the surplus beaver population, warrants a heavier than usual harvest of the fur crop this year.

Arthur L. Hensley, Game control for the Bureau of Game Conservation, Division of Fish and Game, says approximately 500 beaver have been taken annually for several years from the Delta region by trappers operating under special permit. It is estimated that 2,000 beaver now are available in the waterways of the San Joaquin-Sacramento River delta. Half of this number probably will be taken during the open trapping season.

The beaver reputedly abound in portions of Solano, Contra Costa, San Joaquin, Sacrmaento and Yolo Counties.

The area in which unrestricted beaver trapping will be permitted embraces a wide strip of territory extending from Sacramento to the outskirts of Berkeley, with one boundary line almost in the shadow of the State Capitol building.

The boundary starts at the intersection of the Sacramento River and I Street on the east bank of the Sacramento River. It continues east along I Street to Twenty-First Street, thence along Freeport Boulevard and State Highway 24 to the junction of Highway 24 and Highway 40. It then goes southerly on Highwway 40 to its junction with Highway 50, and continues along Highway 50 to Stockton, thence south and west through Tracy to a point where the highway crosses the Southern Pacific railroad track. From this point the boundary continues northwest along the railroad track to Brentwood, and thence n orthwest along State Highway 4 to its junction with Highway 40, and thence along Highway 40 to Front and I Streets.

Hensley said all special permits to trap beaver have been revoked. Licensed trappers who want to trap the area must get which must be attached to the beaver pelts at the time they are

Diary of a 49'er

There is another man who is making money. All our letters come by mail to Sacramento and are then sent by express to Hamlet Davis, the storekeeper on Deer Creek who acts as postmaster although he has no legal appointment. He is the big gold dust buyer of the camp and can afford to do the work for nothing as it brings most of the miners to his store. Johnny Latham, the express rider, contracts to carry letters and papers for two bits each and rides the trails and creeks for miles around delivering them besides selling newspapers to such as want the latest news from the states. We are always pleased when his mule heaves in sight and would gladly give him the weight of the letters in gold if we had to. How heartsick we get for news from the old home way off here out of the world and there is no disappointment quite as bad as when he passes us by without handing over the expected letter.

After a pint of this dark, bitter but bracing mixture, it suddenly dawned upon your scribe that the column all Nevada County had been waiting for was: CORNER OF BROAD AND MILL. We like it because it underlines the basic unity of the two communities.

Seeing as how you must be desperate for something to do, or you wouldn't have stuck with us this far, we shall now indoctrinate you, more or less painlessly, into the editorial policy of that new publication that is on everybody's doorstep today and every Friday, the NUGGET SHOPPER.

It's primary policy, if you're not shocked by hearing a spade called a spade, is to make money for Smiley and Leete. This it seeks to do by providing all Nevada County with a truly modern advertising medium, implemented by its 100% coverage, to enable Grass Valley and Nevada City merchants to completely serve local buyers here in Nevada County, and to reach out into Sierra and Placer Counties, and attract trade here.

We desire to create a great Nevada City-Grass Valley shopping center, serving an ever increasing area of the Sierras. The NUGGET SHOPPER will expand with the growth of local retail trade. It's basic economic purpose is to create a GREATER AND GREATER NEVADA COUNTY!

Household Hint

If you have a piece of meat that you suspect isn't going to be tender, marinate it in plain vinegar with a dash of garlic vinegar added. Garlic vinegar is made by mashing 6 garlic cloves and putting them into a pint of vinegar. Let it stand about 10 days. Use only a drop or two in a salad or other foods.
